Speech and Language Therapist Vacancy Announcement

Centennial School of Lehigh University announces a vacancy in the following position: SPEECH AND LANGUAGE THERAPIST

Centennial School of Lehigh University is seeking applications from qualified candidates for a full-time speech and language therapist position for the 2020-2021 academic year. Candidates must hold a valid Pennsylvania Special Education Speech-Language Pathologist Impaired PK-12 Instructional Certification or Educational Specialist Certification for School Speech and Language Pathologist PK-12. Applicants should possess a 3.0 overall grade point average and a desire to work with children and youth having emotional disabilities and autism. Required candidate skills include an ability to develop, implement, maintain, and document a program of therapy, which meets the needs of each student. In addition, candidates with strong teamwork skills and the ability to work collaboratively with teachers, parents, and administrators in a professional and positive environment are highly preferred. Tuition reimbursement for 18 credit hours per year of Masters level coursework is available as part of the Centennial benefit package. Salary is competitive.

Effective Date: November 12, 2020
Closing Date: Until filled

Interested and qualified candidates should submit a letter of interest, resume, college transcripts, and the names, addresses, and phone numbers of three references. To apply for a position, please email the application materials to incenthr@lehigh.edu.

Pre-employment paperwork requirements include PA State Police Clearance (Act 34); Child Abuse Clearance (Act 151); FBI Fingerprint Clearance (Act 114); School Employee Health Form (Physical and TB test); Sexual Misconduct/Abuse Disclosure Release Forms (Act 168).

Lehigh University is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of age, color, disability, gender, gender identity, genetic information, marital status, national or ethnic origin, race, religion, sexual orientation, or veteran status. Lehigh University provides comprehensive benefits including partner benefits.